The Most Holy Trinity

The Mystery of the Blessed Trinity

Today we celebrate the solemnity of the Most Holy Trinity. The Church sets aside this Sunday to focus our attention on the mystery of the Blessed Trinity, God who is one, but three persons—Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

The first reading from Deuteronomy emphasizes both God’s awesome greatness and amazing nearness. It might seem beyond belief, but the God of all creation speaks to us, protects us, and guides us. The second reading from Saint Paul’s Letter to the Romans describes how we are to relate to the three persons who are one God. We are led by the Spirit to meet God the Father as adopted children. Our adoption is such that we are even heirs with our brother, Christ, the second person of the Trinity, in whose sufferings we must also share. In Matthew’s Gospel, Jesus speaks with his authority as God and sends us to teach and baptize in the name of the Trinity. Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

Feast of Faith

Liturgy and the Holy Trinity

The Trinity is the central mystery of our faith. We believe that God is one, yet three: total unity and rich diversity. God is not a monolith, but a dynamic community of persons, a perfect, loving harmony of three. And the liturgy is the work of the Trinity. We begin all our liturgical celebrations with the sign of the cross, a reminder of our Trinitarian baptism, and the simplest of all professions of our faith. We believe that God is Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, and we gather in the name of this triune God. Throughout the Mass, we address our prayers to God the Father, through Christ our Lord, in the Spirit’s power. And the Father hears our prayer, transforming bread and wine into the Body and Blood of his Son by the Holy Spirit. The Church is “the sacrament of trinitarian communion” (Sacramentum Caritatis, 16). It is the Trinity who holds us together as well. In the words of Saint Cyprian, we are “a people made one by the unity of the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit” (quoted in Sacramentum Caritatis, 16).

The Most Holy Trinity

Go . . . and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit.

— Matthew 28:19

Patriotic Rosary

All parishioners are invited to pray a rosary with us for the peace and protection of our country. We pray in the Church after 8:30 a.m. Mass, Monday thru Saturday.

2021 Pastoral Services Appeal

Thank you to the parishioners who have already pledged to support the mission of our church. If you have not made your pledge, there are brochures with pledge cards in the pews for your convenience. Please prayerfully consider how you will respond to this call to carry on Christ’s work in our community.

The Most Holy Trinity

First Friday Devotion This coming Friday, June 4

“I promise you, in the excessive mercy of my Heart that my all powerful love will grant to all those who receive Holy Communion on the first Friday for nine consecutive months, they shall not die in my disgrace nor without receiving the sacraments; my divine Heart shall be their safe refuge in that last moment.” — Our Lord to St. Margaret Mary . Mass is at 8:30 a.m. The Sacrament of Reconciliation is available First Friday at 9:30a.m.

Corpus Christi Novena

May 28-June 5

“There can be no Eucharist without the priesthood, just as there can be no priesthood without the Eucharist.” - Pope John Paul II

Praying for God’s Mercy

The Rosary Prayer Group prays the Chaplet of Divine Mercy and the Rosary for the needs of our Parish, the Nation and the World every Monday and Thursday at 3:00 p.m. at Church.

Congratulations to our New Eucharistic Ministers

We are very happy to announce that Father Juan (our Pastor), has liturgically commissioned last Sunday, May 23rd, during 12 noon Mass the following parishioners to act as Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion to serve our community in the Church and to the homebound. Congratulations to Donna Kupfer, Elsa Gildner, Georgina Guerra, Jean Fletcher and Linda Harenburg. Thank you also to All our Eucharistic Ministers lead by Fran Hay who are always so committed, especially during the uncertain year, God bless you All.

Attention Lectors

This is to inform that our dear parishioner and friend Kathie Paradis will not continue in the role as Lector’s Coordinator. (Thanks God she still the lead at the Prayer Group). We are so grateful for all these years of dedicated wonderful ministry. Our new lector coordinator is Rosa Carrillo. Thank you Rosa for accepting the role as Lector coordinator. God bless you both in your ministries .
