

The people were exceedingly astonished and they said,
“He has done all things well.
He makes the deaf hear and the mute speak.”

Twenty-Third Sunday in Ordinary Time

Message from Bishop Kevin Vann, JCD

“SB 380, the California bill that aims to expand access to assisted suicide, does the opposite of “do no harm.” It would expand threats to patient safety and incentivize the wrong responses to patient care during serious illness or at life’s end. Therefore, I earnestly invite you to join me alongside my brother bishops in California, disabilities rights groups and a diverse coalition of community members in opposing SB 380. Please contact your assembly member today and urge him or her to vote no on SB 380. Visit the California Catholic Conference action alerts and No On SB 380 websites to learn more.”

Sept 11th this year marks the 20th anniversary of the terrorist attack on American soil. We mark this day with fervent prayers for peace. Parishioners are invited to join with the Patriotic Rosary group after the 830am Mass. Also, during this prayer time, we will commemorate the service men and women who have made the ultimate sacrifice in Afghanistan.

Twenty-Third Sunday in Ordinary Time

Pastoral Care of the Sick

According to the teachings of the Church in the revised Pastoral Care of the Sick, waiting for the end of life to call for a priest in what is popularly called “last rites,” is a false practice that needs to be corrected.

- † Prayers at the end of life are called Final Commendations and may be led by deacons, lay ministers, or family members at the bedside; and Holy Communion (Viaticum) may be administered if the dying person could still receive the Eucharist.
- † The Sacraments of the Sick, when administered by a priest, include Confession, Anointing, and Holy Communion (administered together or separately, depending on the condition of the sick person). And these sacraments are normally administered long before the dying moment so that with full faculty the sick person may fully benefit from their healing effect. In fact, a deceased person may not receive these Sacraments, so calling for a priest to administer “last rites” at the last moment would be a futile task.
- † In addition to the monthly Anointing of the Sick at church, our parish priest will make timely visits to elderly, homebound, and seriously ill parishioners to administer the proper Sacraments of the Sick upon request. Our ministers of Communion to the sick and homebound and our Christian Service volunteers will make regular visits and check-up calls to ensure that those who need the sacraments are able to receive them timely.
- † Please contact our parish office to arrange a priest’s pastoral visit during illness in advance of imminent death.

Installation of Father Joseph

Bishop Kevin Vann will be at our parish on Sunday, September 19th, at the 10am Mass, to celebrate the installation of Fr. Joseph as pastor. All parishioners are invited to the Mass and light reception afterwards.

Thank you from Barbara

Our dearest parish secretary, Barbara, is thanking everyone at Holy Family who prays for her. Please continue praying for her recovery.
