Pastor's Scripture Reflection

"You became imitators of us and of the Lord, ... so that you became a model for all the believers" (1Thes 1:6). Paul's letter today recalls something I learned as a child, abandoned as a teenager, and rediscovered as a young adult: Imitating the lives of the saints, seeing Jesus in them. Saints model virtues charity, hope, courage, and humility; and show that holiness is possible. In them, holiness is not perfection but aligning one's will to God's through prayer. So, each day, I strive to apply at least one saintly lesson: Faith in adversity; resilience through opposition; trust through doubt; grace through suffering; and spiritual growth upon challenges. Most importantly, everyone can be saintly and make a difference, for small expressions of goodness can profoundly impact the whole world...eventually!

PRAYER FOR VOCATIONS

O God, Grant us holy vocations in the Diocese of Orange. Call forth laborers for Your vineyard from our parishes, families, and schools. Inspire young people to lay down their lives for the Gospel. Configure men for priestly sacrifice and pastoral service. Draw men and women to radical discipleship through consecrated life. Grant parents generosity to encourage their children to discover Your plan of love. O Virgin Mary, Mother of the Church, Teach us to say a joyful "YES" as you did at the Annunciation. Amen.
