Pastor's Scripture Reflection

"See what love the Father has bestowed on us... Everyone who has this hope based on him makes himself pure" (1Jn 3:1-3). Here is a bit of trivia controversy: Who famously said "Saints are sinners who keep on trying"? St. Mother Teresa? Robert Louis Stevenson? Nelson Mandela? St. Josemaría Escrivá? St. Augustine? Actually, they all said something similar—except Stevenson, who was atheist. My favorite is Augustine: ""Every saint has a past, and every sinner has a future." Wait, don't tell me that was Oscar Wilde! Whatever, the saints are made pure by Love, not by perfection. Sainthood is the expression of how love overwhelmingly exceeds sin. It demonstrates the paradox that the saints love more because they have been forgiven more (Luke 7:47).

PRAYER FOR VOCATIONS

O God, Grant us holy vocations in the Diocese of Orange. Call forth laborers for Your vineyard from our parishes, families, and schools. Inspire young people to lay down their lives for the Gospel. Configure men for priestly sacrifice and pastoral service. Draw men and women to radical discipleship through consecrated life. Grant parents generosity to encourage their children to discover Your plan of love. O Virgin Mary, Mother of the Church, Teach us to say a joyful "YES" as you did at the Annunciation. Amen.
